Dear Mr. Casey:

Now that the holiday rush is over, I want to thank you more fully for having us to luncheon on December 20th. Mr. Prince, Dr. Abshire, Dr. Jordan, Dr. Byrnes and I all agreed that the conversations were most useful and enjoyable. I hope you had a similarly positive impression and that more substantive discussions about application of the Soviet Project findings may follow.

The manuscript of the findings, consisting of seven chapters by the seven work group chairmen, is now at the printer's. The book is being published by Indiana University Press and will come out late May/early June. In the meantime a special spring issue of The Washington Quarterly will feature adapted material from the manuscript. If in the interim you need additional background material or information, please let me know.

Thank you again for hosting the enjoyable luncheon and a useful meeting.

Sincerely,

Aileen Masterson
Coordinator, Soviet Project
